

Abhishek,

First of all, wow. This is beautiful. Beautiful, beautiful, beautiful. The overall direction, the cleanliness, the tone, the simplicity... you absolutely captured the vision. I'm genuinely excited seeing this come to life.

A few refinements as I walk through it with my own lens and language:

LANDING PAGE

#1 HERO Section change it to: “SEEKEROFSTORY.COM – MEGA MISSION”

#2 Remove: “Real founders. Real blueprints. Zero paywalls.”

#3 Remove: “Tell us where you’re going and we’ll find someone who’s already been there.”

#4 Change that wording to: “SEARCH THE BECOMING DATABASE”

#5 Revise to: Becoming Blueprint Database

#5 Remove “Meet the Founding Stories section”

#6 Remove the Call-to-Action Section

I think this should be a contact page for Founders to reach out to us.. .

ABOUT SOS PAGE

#7 under “About SOS”:

Replace the current paragraph with:

“When you’re in transition, unemployed, burned out, or standing at the edge of a leap, you can’t afford high, overrated, astronomical monthly subscriptions. But somewhere out there is a founder who already walked your exact path and is ready to become your mentor.”

#8 The Model Built on The Goodwill Principle

Revise the sections content:

01 — Founders Give

Founders give because they’re finally in a position to give freely.

They share who they were, what they’re building, why they’re building it, and the lessons that shaped the journey.

02 — SOS Becomes the Bridge

It carries stories, blueprints, wisdom, and lived experience from people willing to share what they’ve learned so someone else doesn’t have to walk alone.

03 — The Seeker Finds Hope

Anyone in transition can search the Becoming Database freely.

No monthly subscriptions.

No gatekeeping.

Type what you want to become, and the platform surfaces people who've already walked that path. The seeker finds hope.

Add this section to the bottom:

This isn't about accolades or revenue sharing. It's about a founder unknowingly becoming a voice of hope to someone.

There is life and death in the power of the tongue, and the founder who shares their story has already spoken life.

#9 The Founder Meet Susy Gordon

Please remove the entire “Meet Susy Gordon, the Founder” section from the About SOS page. I'll have my own separate Becoming Page, so I want the About SOS section to stay fully focused on the platform itself, not on me personally.

The About page should explain:

- the mission,
- the model,
- the purpose of the platform,

- and how seekers connect with blueprints and hope.

My personal story and founder journey will live separately inside my own Becoming profile page.

FOUNDING STORIES PAGE

Remove:

“PROOF OF CONCEPT — ALREADY IN FLIGHT”

Replace with:

THIS MISSION IS NO LONGER PROOF OF CONCEPT

Remove:

These founders have already documented their roadmap. Their Becoming Stories are live on YouTube and available on all major podcast platforms.

Replace with:

Living blueprints from people who chose to document the becoming, not just the outcome.

Keep only active/profile-ready founding stories visible: Becoming Profiles

- 001 Susy Gordon
- 002 Carrie Carter
- 003 Yoel Zehaie
- 004 Lena Killion

Smaller. Cleaner. More compressed.

The focus should stay on active stories and clickable “View Becoming Story” links.

For future/open spots:

Instead of giant empty placeholders, use compact cards that say:

Your story belongs here.
